Vineyard Site:

Ried Kittmannsberg is located west of Langenlois, with a predominantly southeast-facing exposure. The soils are deep, highly calcareous, and consist of loamy-sandy silt, formed from widely distributed and multi-layered loess deposits. The Wechselberg vineyard is situated southeast of the Kogelberg. Here, the vines grow on loess and primarily acidic gneiss of the Bohemian Massif.

Cellar

Traditional bottle fermentation

Gentle pressing, fermentation, and maturation in used 500-liter oak barrels. After the second fermentation in the bottle, the raw sparkling wine remains on the lees for 100 months to develop its creaminess and fine mousse.

Wine Description

A new highlight in our sparkling wine family! This exquisite sparkling wine, crafted from Pinot Noir grapes, is a true masterpiece in the "Große Reserve" category. With delicate bubbles, elegant fruitiness, and a subtle creaminess, it offers a truly unique experience. Our homage to the Pinot Noir grape variety.

Food Pairing

Ideal for festive occasions or as a refined companion to fine cuisine.
